Sprint

SO BEAUTIFUL IT WILL MAKE YOU DREAM,
SO QUICK IT WILL MAKE YOUR HEART RACE

In 1954 Alfa Romeo introduced the world to the Giulietta Sprint, the car that invented the idea of a high-performance compact car. The engine came directly from racing, an aluminium 4-cylinder 1.3 litre that propelled the Sprint to an extraordinary 105 mph, a speed unheard of at the time. The styling was by Bertone, the romantic and feisty silhouettes immediately heralded as a classic and an icon of Italian design.

But it wasn't just about looks; the car also had real substance. Reliable and accessible its price and running costs made it a dream to own. The Giulietta Sprint is the car Italians desire, a much loved automotive and social phenomenon with over 35,000 models produced.
